A delight to inspect is this impressive family home. Ideally suited to the family looking for room with this appealing floor plan. The quality timber kitchen has ample storage and there is a generous combination of formal and informal living areas, four bedrooms, two bathrooms and loads of storage.

Externally the property features a double garage and popular north/west facing sun filled rear yard. Access to walking tracks and bike path, bus stop at the door and close proximity to shopping and schools all add to the appeal of this fine home. You inspection is highly recommended
